THE SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM
(Information as of 1030 EDT)

1. Regime and opposition alike are preparing for the imminent arrival of the UN observer mission in South Vietnam. Press reports indicate that the Saigon regime [redacted]

4. The opposition has made some tentative attempts to have its case presented to the visiting mission through US diplomatic and consular facilities, apparently convinced that the regime will afford few opportunities for opposition spokesmen to reach the UN observers. [redacted] failing US sponsorship, the Buddhist opposition will feel its last chance to impress the observers lies in demonstrations and further immolations.
